

Family to Donate Organs of Bicycle Crash Victim

Written by Mongoose Bikes
Monday, 23 May 2011 14:59 -

A North Valley family is grieving after a weekend bicycle race in Fresno County. 29-year-old Crystel Stanford, a native of Chowchilla, crashed her bicycle on Saturday afternoon during a 100-mile ride as part of the EYE-Q California Classic. Her family tells CBS47 that doctors have pronounced her brain-dead. "The first thing that comes to mind was her attitude, her cheery smile all the time. Just ...